

Southwestern and Mexican Studies

Director: Julie Hempel

College Archivist and Assistant Director: Justin Banks

Southwestern and Mexican Studies (CSMS) promotes collaborative learning between students and faculty members, with special emphasis on the intersection of Latino and Anglo cultures in Texas and Mexico.

A minor in Southwestern and Mexican studies consists of:

Regional Focus (2 courses)

_____ Course with focus on southwestern United States: _____

_____ Course with focus on Mexico: _____

Advanced Elective (1 course)

_____ Course with southwestern US and Mexico focus at 300 level or higher: _____

Electives (2 courses)

_____ Course with southwestern US and Mexico focus: _____

_____ Course with southwestern US and Mexico focus: _____

Language Requirement

_____ Language competency in Spanish through the 202 level is also required.

Other Considerations When Planning for this Minor:

- Disciplinary courses approved for the minor in Southwestern and Mexican studies are listed in the course schedule each term and coded “SW.”
- Courses are regularly offered in the following programs: anthropology, history, English, philosophy, and Spanish.
- Consult with program faculty for course approval.

Total Credits Requirement = 5 course credits